Tucson Bonsai Society
proudly presents:

Lindsay Shiba as guest bonsai artist
February 7, 8 & 9, 2020

This will be Lindsay's fourth visit to Tucson. He started his bonsai training at age 11, learning from his father, Katsumi Shiba, who was an early student of John Naka in the LA area. Later, he studied with Khan Komai at his Bonsai-En in Temple City, CA where he advanced his knowledge of formal bonsai display. After graduation from Cal Poly in 1981 with a degree in Horticulture, he worked at and recently sold the Mt. Fuji Garden Center in Upland, CA. He now devotes full-time to teaching Bonsai.

Lindsay is currently President of the prestigious California Bonsai Society, originally founded by John Naka, for bonsai professionals and more advanced bonsai artists. He has more recently taught workshops in both Florida and New Mexico. His hobby is sumi-e painting. He works with many clubs and conventions in GSBF.

This event is not to be missed, and we recommend the weekend especially for our newer members. One or two nursery plant(s)will be selected by David and Lindsay to be demoed. Raffle tickets will be available at $5 each or 5 tickets for $20 on Sunday for the finished bonsai demo tree(s). We encourage all members to purchase at least two tickets at the event on Sunday to help defray TBS costs. This program on Sunday from noon until 3:30 takes the place of our regular February club meeting and is free to the public. Sorry, no workshops on Sunday.

Send in your registration ASAP, as the workshops usually fill up fast. We have a limit of eight members working on 2 trees each on Friday, for more advanced work and refinement. Saturday half day sessions are for one tree. Silent observers are welcome to watch each tree being worked on, and to take notes, as the info will be "in streaming mode".
